

Legal Update - hot news in the world of Law, all the new information you need to know.

Good advice for all property professionals.

As the Law is ever changing, it pays to keep abreast of current and planned future legislation, especially if you are involved in the property market. We are therefore delighted to invite you to our second Sussex Property Forum to be held on 10 June 2008, where a Legal Update will be given followed by an open forum for property, accountancy and financial issues.

We will be holding our second property forum at Hove County Cricket Ground on 10 June 2008 from 7am - 9am to include a full English breakfast. To secure your FREE place please email our marketing co-ordinator Lisa John on lisajohn@spofforths.co.uk or phone her on 01903 828728.

Sussex Property Forum, a group of lawyers, financiers and accountants dedicated to providing support for your property venture. We can help by removing the guesswork, ensuring less risk and providing a better framework for return on your investment.
